Advert: We are looking for a dedicated and ambitious practitioner to assist and support pupils in implementing their own personal and medical care plans during the school day. Our ethos, and that of the The Forge Trust, is to encourage our children to be aspirational and maintain a work ethic that will help them achieve their future goals. As a result, we expect our staff to promote these values through their own practice.

The position available is for those who possess the relentless drive and ambition to support children. The successful candidates will need to have:

- Experience of working in an educational setting
- An awareness of how to best support children with complex medical needs
- A commitment to helping all pupils achieve their best, regardless of their background or starting point;

In return, we can offer you:

- Training and development through CPD opportunities
- An opportunity to work with dedicated practitioners
- An exciting opportunity to continue the transformation of The Parkgate Academy

EXTERNAL ADVERT

About us: The FORGE Trust is a primary school led, multi-academy trust which was founded in September 2016 on the success of The Sir Donald Bailey Academy in Newark, Nottinghamshire.

There is a clear vision to provide the very best education for every pupil in our schools ensuring the quality of teaching is excellent and the environment for learning encourages all pupils to find their talent and succeed. We believe strongly in our mission to change the lives of these children and have the ambition to be the most successful multi-academy trust in the country!

The Trust specialises in working in communities which face disadvantage and challenge, and prides itself on having a transformational agenda to significantly impact on the life chances of children in the communities served by FORGE schools.

Visits to the school are warmly welcomed and encouraged. Please contact Kerry Chadburn - the Principal - at The Parkgate Academy either by email: kerrychadburn@theparkgateacademy.co.uk or by telephone: 01623 860584 to arrange a mutually convenient appointment.

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults and we expect all staff to share this commitment and undergo appropriate checks; therefore, all posts within the trust are subject to an Enhanced Disclosure and Barring Check.

The trust welcomes applications from all, irrespective of gender, marital status, disability, race, age or sexual orientation.
